Shooting Near Millersburg.

As the result of an altercation which took place near Millersburg Saturday morning about eleven o'clock between Chas. Williams and James Williams, two negroes, the latter was shot in the head. James Williams had been to the farm of Mr. U. S. G. Pepper to strip tobacco and finding it too dry for work had returned home, where he found Charles Williams. The cause of the difficulty is not known. James Williams was taken into custody by Marshal Jos. Williams of Millersburg.

Arrested for Embezzlement.

The Lexington Leader says: "On a charge of embezzlement, D. H. Boone, aged 21, of 426 North Lime-stone street, was arrested Friday morning by Detectives Veal and Thompson. Boone it is claimed is wanted at Louisville on an indictment which was returned against him by the Jefferson county grand jury Thursday. He has until recently been employed by the Stewart Dry Goods Company of that city and says that the trouble is over the failure of a package to be sent out. He denies any knowledge of an embezzlement on his part."

Lecture on White Slave Traffic.

Mr. J. Paul Daley, travelling representative of the Cincinnati Vigilance Society, and vice president and traveling secretary of the Vigilance and Protective Association of America, will lecture on the "White Slave Traffic," at the court house in this city tonight.

The object of the Association is to cut off the source of supply of girls to the vice districts of large cities, as it is alleged eighty per cent of the inmates of such resorts, come from nearby towns.

Mr. Daley says there are 700,000 fallen women in houses of ill fame in the United States, and that the Ohio valley and bluegrass sections contribute liberally to Cincinnati's vice district.

The "Comet" Opens.

Manager R. S. Porter threw open the doors of his new picture theatre, the "Comet," last night. This is one of the nicest little theatres in this section and was liberally patronized last evening. The place will be open daily, giving a continuous performance commencing at 1 o'clock p. m.
